¹

Future EU/EEA-students of a Dutch taught programme at the University of Amsterdam (UvA) are entitled to a refund of a part of the course fee on production of a valid UvA student card for the academic year 2020-2021.

Refund level 1 and 2: € 730; level 3 and 4: € 550

²

This reduced fee applies to students who enrol in a course that starts within 6 months after having graduated from the UvA.

³

This reduced fee applies to UvA students and UvA staff.

Application procedure

- Because the courses have a limited capacity, timely registration is recommended.
- In the application form we ask you to indicate the course level that -you think- suits you best. Based on the information obtained during our intake test (before the beginning of the course) we may however advise you to attend the course at a different level.
- This application form can only be used for one course. Once participating in a course there will be a different application procedure for those wanting to participate in the following level.
- Prospective students of the UvA who require a student visa can only apply through: <http://www.uva.nl/application>. They cannot use this application form to apply. Others may apply directly. They should fill out the application form and email it to intt@uva.nl or send it to:
Postal address
Instituut voor Nederlands Taalonderwijs en Taaladvies
Postbus 1631
1000 BP Amsterdam
- An invitation to pay the fee will then be sent inviting immediate payment of the course fee.

Conditions

- A refund is only possible if written cancellation (by letter or by e-mail) is received at least four weeks before the start of the course. A ten percent administration charge will be deducted from each refund.
- If there are less than 10 applicants for a group, the group will be cancelled. Those who have already paid the course fee will be completely refunded.
- For detailed information please see the flyer 'Intensive daytime Dutch language courses'.
